

Census Bureau ... Helping You Make Informed Decisions

Free Census Workshop

Are you interested in learning more about census data? Did you know that we have information from Census 2000 available for neighborhoods and block groups? Information like race and ethnicity, ancestry, educational attainment, disability, income, poverty, housing values, rents, homeowner costs to name just a few! Learn how to access this information from the Internet on your own computer. Come see what other census products and resources are available... and what we do the "other nine years!"
